Today Pastor Abe is sharing from:

Luke 24: 32-35

Thoughts from today's life lesson...

The men on the road to Emmaus realized as they recognized Jesus, that He was who He said He was. Perhaps we haven't fully embraced belief or followership in Jesus because we haven't felt that burning in our souls. They recalled His instructions and the deep pleasure of listening to those instructions because God's word is life! These powerful words reached and awakened their hearts to truly understand the cost of Christ's suffering, the necessity of it and the power of that love.

Ministry Focus:

Dear Praying Friends,

To teach at Steinreich Bible School is an opportunity to contribute to the growth and the 'shaping' of roughly 100 young people annually. If one is convinced enough of the benefit of that work, one is willing to endure a massive workload while serving there. It is very rewarding to see students mature as they return year after year. This year there were fifteen graduates, one of whom is a serving pastor and several of which will possibly be continuing their education, most likely at SBC in Steinbach. Praise the Lord that SBC is willing to give SBS graduates approximately two semesters of credit for the studies they have already completed. Thank-you for praying for the Steinreich Bible School, its teachers and its students.

John and Gabi will be leaving Saturday, April 28 for two speaking engagements:

~Burwalde CMM - Sunday, April 29 to Saturday, May 5 (8 times)

~Steinreich CMM - Sunday, May 6 to Thursday, May 10 (6 times)
